Junior's Rate Tops at Mark Hopkins Meet

Competing with Junior Women's Clubs throughout the entire state proved a snap for the Torrance Juniors this past week.

Mrs. J. G. Louvier, president for the past year, and Mrs. Kenneth Boulter, newly elected president, returned from the Federation of Women's Clubs Junior Membership convention at Mark Hopkins Hotel, San Francisco with a number of awards.

Local BPW's Attend Coronado Convention

Off to an early start, nine members of the Torrance Business and Professional Woman's Club left today to attend a four-day convention at El Coronado Hotel, Coronado Island.

The state convention of the club will fulfill a three-fold purpose, states Mrs. Dale Shrum, junior past president. New officers will be elected, a special workshop program of general information for members attending is planned and "swap shop" talks between clubs will be held.

From the Torrance delegation, Mrs. Jack Hahn, president, and Mrs. Shrum, junior past president, will act as the voting body.

Attending the convention are Mes. Hahn, Shrum, Bob Lewellen, Sanford Whiting, Nick Drale, Pearl Good, Hilda Monroe, Clara Connors and Bess Tufts.

Little League Dance

Woman's Club to Salute Cecil B. DeMille

The 68th Annual Convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs to be held June 1-5 inclusive, at Los Angeles, promises to be a star-studded affair from beginning to close.

International, as well as national speakers, will feature the afternoon and evening sessions, with morning sessions devoted to the business of the Federation.

Preceding the official opening of the convention at the Shrine Auditorium on Tuesday morning, California clubwomen will present an inspiring and memorable "California Night" banquet and program at the Palladium in Hollywood, Monday evening, June 1.

A salute to Cecil B. DeMille, great film maker and great American, will be presented by Monaca Jones, Los Angeles, motion picture chairman, CFWC. The program will be built around the life work of this pioneer producer-director.

Stars participating will include Anne Baxter, Yule Brenner, Yvonne de Carlo, Edward G. Robinson, Deborah Paget, Sir Cedric Hardwicke, Nina Foch, Martha Scott, Vincent Price, Judith Anderson and Olive Deering.

Climaxing the program will be the presentation of the California Federation of Women's Clubs special award planned
